

Dear Colleagues:

I am honored to be nominated for the position of Grievance Officer for the LIUFF. It would be an honor to serve you all.

For those who don't know me, I'm the current Chairperson of the Department of Social Work. I've only been at LIU since 2012, but I'm Brooklyn born, and bred. I'm a lawyer, as well as a social worker. I believe my professional training and experience would be helpful in the role of Grievance Officer.

While I have not been active in LIUFF before, I have been very active in other roles across campus and the University. I have served on the University Faculty Senate, as a Co-Secretary. I am currently finishing up my term with the Brooklyn Campus Curriculum Committee, where I also serve as Secretary. I am currently in my first year on the BCFS Executive Committee.

Those who have worked with me know that I'm a hard worker. I'm also known for carefully reviewing important documents to make sure that everyone knows what they say, and that everyone is on the same page about what they mean. I think these aspects of my personality would be my strongest assets as Grievance Officer.

If I am elected the next Grievance Officer of the LIUFF I will work tirelessly to preserve, and protect, the rights of all LIUFF members.

Sincerely,
